LOVE DISAPPOINTED YOUTH JUMPS FROM BROOKLYN BRIDGE

Seventeen-Year-Old Edward J. Ditmars, Discouraged Because He Couldn't Wed Girl He Loved, Plunges to Death.

Within two weeks three men have jumped off the Brooklyn Bridge. A young man who took the plunge to-day was the third. He was married to him in picked up alive after his drop of 136 feet into the East River, but died before an ambulance surgeon reached him.

Subsequently the suicide was identified as Edward J. Ditmars, the the very rich seventeen-year-old son of Dr. James G. Ditmars, of No. 525 1-2 Sixth avenue, Brooklyn. He was despondent, his mother said, because he could street
